COUNCIL
Torrance Council of Parent Teachers has slated fall workshops to be conducted Thursday, Sept. 21 from 9:30 to 11:30 at the First Christian Church of Torrance. Mrs. Ben Hatfield will direct activities for the unit officers and chairmen. Child care will be provided.

Mrs. Paul Crossman, Communications Director of Torrance Council, conducted a parliamentary procedure course at Hickory School for six weeks. Twenty-four unit members completed the course and will receive certificates. Assisting Mrs. Crossman was Mrs. Vernon Terry, past parliamentarian of Torrance Council.

HAMILTON
Mrs. James Esarey, hospitality chairman of Hamilton PTA and her committee are working on plans for the Teachers Luncheon to be held on Sept. 12, at the school.

Ways and means chairman, Mrs. Clem Bolles, announced that plans for the "Rodeo" to be held in early October are underway. The "Rodeo" and associated activities will be in lieu of the annual Halloween Carnival.

Board members and committee chairmen are reminded that the September Board meeting will be held at Hamilton School Wednesday, Sept. 6, at 1 p.m.

Farewell Party
Mrs. Sara Hogue entertained at a breakfast Tuesday morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. R. J. Triplitt, 3238 Colorado, honoring Mrs. Tom Millstad, who is planning a trip.

Other guests were old friends, Mrs. Bessie Box and Mrs. Lucille Myers.

AT GRAND BETHEL CONVENTION
Torrance Bethel 50, International Order of Job's Daughters, was well represented at the recent Grand Bethel held in Fresno. Attending were, from left, front row, Vic Fowler, associate Bethel Guardian; Mrs. Jessie Fowler, Rickie Major, Dona Fenton, Brenda Watt, Linda Watt, Pattie Moore, Honored Queen; Billie Ott, Debbie Fox, Robin Major, Cheryl Peterson, and Mrs. Carolyn Peterson, Bethel Guardian. Back row, Charles Peterson, Mrs. Patsy Watt, Mrs. Helen Moore, Debbie Ellison, Cathy Clark, Nancy Butler, Claudia Yates, Phyllis Nation and Debbie Finley. During the convention, Cheryl Peterson, junior past Honored Queen of Bethel 50, was selected as Grand Bethel Representative to Alberta, Canada. Mrs. Olive James, grand guardian, announced that the next convention would be held in Oakland.

Mount St. Mary's

Announces New College Prexy

A quiet transition Tuesday, Aug. 15, has put in office a new, young president, Sister Cecilia Louise Ph. D., for Mount St. Mary's College in Los Angeles.

The former president, Sister Rebecca, D. Ed., is resuming the position she had six years ago, as chairman of the college's department of nursing. Almost one-third of the Mount's graduates each year are from the nursing profession.

newcomer to college administration. She has been dean of faculty, chairman of the department of physical sciences, dean of residence and has been involved in student affairs as senior class moderator—at various times during her ten years at Mount St. Mary's.

In January 1966, she was elected to the faculty curriculum committee and appointed chairman. Sister Cecilia Louise spearheaded the change in calendar and curriculum, effective Sept. 1967, until she was selected by the American Council on Education for administrative internship, 1966-67.

Sister Cecilia Louise, 39, is a native of Phoenix, Arizona, but did her high school and undergraduate work in Los Angeles. Her Ph. D. in Chemistry is from St. Louis University. She has attended NSF institutes at Washington State and Pomona College.

Personal Development Topic for B&PW Club

An unusual approach to Personal Development (one of the three fields of programming stressed by the National Federation of Business and Professional Women) will be featured at the Aug. 21 dinner meeting of the Torrance Business and Professional Women's Club.

Entitled "What Can You Do For BPW?" the program will be built around a series of short talks by members of the Torrance Club showing the development of women from the health, education, cultural and spiritual avenues. Mrs. Helen Giza is chairman for the evening and will introduce the speakers, with Captain Ruth Johns summarizing the entire program.

The 7:30 p.m. dinner meeting will be held at Smith's Indian Village in Torrance. Reservations can be made by contacting either Mrs. Helen Giza or Mrs. Doris Erikson.

Bullock's Presents Show Of Fieldcrest Fashions

A new collection of fall designer garments will be introduced at Bullock's Del Amo Aug. 22 Fieldcrest Fashion Show.

The Bullock's showing will feature styles that both top designers and home sewers alike can create with Fieldcrest's beautifully patterned towels and linens.

Fieldcrest, innovators in the adaptability of bath and closet merchandise to fashionwear, has styled a collection ranging from patio loungewear to the most elegant evening gowns.

Commentating the show will be Miss Barbara Ward, Fieldcrest's Fashion Coordinator. The vivacious Miss Ward brings Fieldcrest fashion excitement to department stores throughout eleven western states and to interested television and radio audiences all along the way.

The fashion show, which begins at 3 p.m., will be open to the general public on a reservation basis. Those interested in attending are invited to phone the fashion office. No admission will be charged.

Luau Dinner, Dance Benefits City of Hope

Annual Luau Dinner Dance, presented each year by the Imperial Chapter of the City of Hope will be held Sept. 9 in the Mayflower Ballroom in Inglewood.

There will be dinner, dancing, entertainment, hula contests and prizes. The public is invited to attend and may make reservations with Mrs. Sam Beiser, Mrs. Edward Heck or Mrs. Leonard Luchfeld, 4827 Milne Drive, Torrance.

Plans for the event were made at a chapter meeting at the Western Ave. Golf Club on Aug. 8 with Mrs. Laurie Kahn presiding. Membership information may be had by calling Mrs. Alfred Berk.

Visit Nephew

Misses Felice and Katherine Shaughnessy, 1404 Cota Ave. spent Sunday and Monday in South Pasadena as guests of their nephew and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Shaughnessy and daughter, Kira.

The business meeting for September will be held Sept. 11 due to the Labor Day holiday falling on regular meeting night. President Flora Hameetman urges all members to be present to hear plans to be announced for the September dinner meeting night.

From Texas

Leaving tomorrow for their home in DeLeon, Tex. will be Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Smith and three children, who have spent the past week here with Mrs. Smith's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Moffitt, 2724 Arlington Ave.

Hosts Club At Luncheon

Mrs. Oscar Fossum entertained members of the Betsy Ross Club at a luncheon at her home, 1621 Cota Ave., last Tuesday at noon.

After the luncheon, Mrs. Charlotte Dolan, president, conducted a business meeting.

Mrs. Fossum's guests were Mrs. Edna Babcock, Earl Clark, Florence Villenave, Pauline Hartley, Emma Ratzlaff, Jean Mosher.

Others were Misses Janette Clark, Roliva Bever, Ricka Johnson, Robert Butler, Charlotte Dolan and Charlotte Outcault.

Expect Guests

From Minnesota

Expected to arrive on Sept. 7 for a month's visit here with Dr. and Mrs. Oscar Fossum, 1621 Cota Ave., are Dr. Fossum's sisters, Mrs. Dorothy Michelson of Minneapolis, Minn., and Mrs. Camilla Dahlen of St. Paul. Another sister, Mrs. Myrtle Morris of Torrance, who has spent the summer in Minnesota, will return with the two visitors.
